A PROGRAM DESIGNED FOR PARENTS AND THEIR BABIES WHO HAVE HEARING LOSS

Dates & Times 2009:

Getting Started

Like other parents of young deaf and hard of hearing children, you recognize the importance of helping your child develop communication. But you may wonder where to begin!

Our Parent-Infant Group “Bouncy Babies” will focus on Part I: Getting Started from our book My Turn To Learn.

The parent-infant sessions led by a team of our experienced program staff.

Dyan Spear, B.A., Teacher of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing, has specialized in Early Intervention and has worked with BC Family Hearing Resource Centre since 1984.

Cathy Chow, Family Support Parent since 1995, A mother of a teen and 2 young adults with hearing loss.

Suzi Fairweather; An oral deaf adult with a cochlear implant, specializing in supporting families with visual communication

Who is the group for?

Parents and children birth to 18 months who have hearing loss.

What to expect...

Join other parents in a fun and relaxed environment.

Learn how music and songs help develop speech, language and listening.

Learn and talk about important skills that will form the foundation of good communication with your child.
