

Working with Families of Infants

A workshop for professionals working with families of infants who are deaf or hard of hearing

BC Family Hearing Resource Centre (BCFHRC) is excited to invite you to “Working with Families of Infants”, a workshop designed to support the needs of professionals working with families of infants 0 to 18 months. This interactive workshop will strengthen professionals’ understanding of how to best support parents at this early point in their journey, focusing on four main areas:

- The parent perspective - building a relationship
- Assessments, goal-setting and expectations
- Parent education and coaching – what does a session look like?
- Working as a team

When: Thursday November 4th, 2021 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Where: Online via Zoom

Who: Speech Language Pathologists, Teachers of the Deaf & Hard of Hearing and Listening & Spoken Language Specialists. Priority will be given to those who are currently working with families of infants (aged 0 to 18 months) who have been identified with a permanent hearing loss.

Cost: Participation in this workshop is free of charge for professionals currently working with the family of an infant receiving services from BCFHRC. The cost of the workshop for professionals not working with a family receiving services from BCFHRC is $200.

Presenters:

- Teresa Kazemir R.SLP, Early Interventionist
- Sarah Lau R.SLP, Early Interventionist
- Cathy Luther, Family Support Parent

Pre-registration is required (this is not a drop-in workshop). Space is limited – please register at the following link by Friday October 15th: <https://form.jotform.com/212295791394263>

Note: A minimum of five professionals must be registered to run the workshop.

This workshop will not be recorded and has been designed for active online participation from attendees. Certificates of participation toward Continued Education hours will be provided.

If you have any questions or want more information, please contact info@bcfamilyhearing.com. An email will be sent out with the access link and pre-reading materials the week prior to the workshop.

We look forward to working with you.
